“She persisted” Gina Chavez

My hands are tied
Your hands are too
Now we don’t know where to go
Don’t know what to do
They’re feeding lies
Starving the truth
Now we don’t know where to go
Don’t know what to do
Can’t deny, realize we’ve been here before
History will repeat ‘til we stop that revolving door
They told her to sit down
Told her to work hard
Told her to stop and wait her turn
Told her to shut up, listen
Nevertheless, she persisted
Take us to church
Tear us in two
Now we don’t know where to go
Don’t know what to do
Dress up the devil in
Red white and blue
Now we don’t know where to go
Don’t know what to do
Can’t deny, realize we’ve been here before
History will repeat ‘til we stop that revolving door
They told her to sit down
Told her to work hard
Told her to stop and wait her turn
Told her to shut up, listen
Nevertheless, she persisted
Nasty women, rock the resistance
Nasty women, rock the resistance

History will repeat ‘til we stop that revolving door
They tell us to sit down
Tell us to work hard
Tell us to stop and wait our turn
Tell us to shut up, listen, listen, listen
They tell us to sit down
Tell us to work hard
Tell us to stop and wait our turn
Tell us to shut up, listen
Nevertheless, we are persistent
