

A Nice Dream

I saw a dream that I was in the moon
It was a yellow ball, where a rabbit smiles and calls
“Hi, my friend come close to me”

When I was floating
Everywhere was cool
Lots of stars were shining
Like a bright and blue school.

And I saw a strange thing
A pretty angel was coming
That I've never seen
The wand in her hand is shining
She whisper me softly
Son, you are rightful today
Then I woke up energetically
To survive the day!
