

A Song

You turn me on
With your touch my love,
The flames start rising
Your heat makes me beat
With the rhythm in full speed
Your lips when that move
Burn the fire in each loaf
Your breaths that goes on
Arise me best must be known
Your fingers working on my breast
Fill my mourns with more lust
You play the tricks with moving lips
Ah my Love Ah my Life
You turn me on
You play the fire
You touch my soul
You turn me on!!!
