

Closed clouds

Closed clouds

Eclipsed the Sun

Subsided sounds

Soon will people run.

You feel the gentle breeze?

It's calm before the storm, it is

You see the sky as lead?

And darkness more

This weather spring

And thunder roar

Then lightning flashed

And fallen drop

Then rain splashed

You feel the light commotion?

And freedom sense

Of crashed emotions?

I like this season tense

I like this weather dance.
