

Education is like a fire

Is like a fire

A fire that grows beyond control

With flames that reach higher and higher

A fire that never burns out but just grows

It is the key to unlock the golden door of freedom

The more we want to learn

The more will come to know

And it is not all about reading

It is about how you see the world

You are the mother of all profession

The pillar of life itself

The saviour of mankind

The ladder that takes us to imaginary heights

Without you we are nothing only mere mortals

And shaping our personality is the motto

I want to thank you for your greatness

Because of you I have a future for which is bright and clear.
