

Education is the key of freedom

Education is the key of freedom

Education is the success of the people

Everyone in the country has the right to education

I am here to encourage all the youth to go to school

Education brings the future to all of us

Without education there is no future

Without education, families are doomed

I'm here to encourage all of you

Take my advice and follow my steps to the key to freedom is education.

Meso from Access South Africa