

Scrambled Lyrics

Below are the first lines to seven songs. Underneath them are the second lines to the same seven songs, but the words are not in the right order. Unscramble the second lines so that they make sense; then match each second line to the first line that it follows. Remember, these are the first two lines to seven different songs, not one long song. Hint: The first and second lines of each song rhyme.

FIRST LINES: Read these and get ready to match each one with a second line below.

1. 1, 2, 3, I feel free!
2. Two friends met one morning at ten
3. I lost my phone when I went to the mall
4. A bluebird smiled at me today
5. The rain started falling with a drop, drop, drop
6. Nothing is better than clean fresh air
7. Hey, everybody, are you ready to sing?

SECOND LINES (SCRAMBLED): Unscramble each to form a meaningful line.

A. problems passed all my away

B. everything this about is a song

C. text I I can't can't and call

D. happy they to meet were again

E. C at B look A me

F. that breathe we can we go when anywhere

G. stop stop stop storm waiting for the we're to

MATCHING: Match the number of the first line with the letter of the second line that follows it.

1. ____ 2. ____ 3. ____ 4. ____ 5. ____ 6. ____ 7. ____

Answers to THE LIGHTER SIDE

SCRAMBLED LYRICS

Note: This puzzle gives the first two lines of seven songs. Can your students create melodies for the songs and sing them?

1. E; 2. D; 3. C; 4. A; 5. G; 6. F; 7. B

MATCHING

A. problems passed all my away → All my problems passed away
B. everything this about is a song → This is a song about everything
C. text I can't and call → I can't text, and I can't call
D. happy they to meet were again → They were happy to meet again
E. C at B look A me → A, B, C, look at me
F. that breathe we can we go when anywhere → That we can breathe when we go anywhere
G. stop stop storm waiting for the we're to → We're waiting for the storm to stop, stop, stop

SECOND LINES (SCRAMBLED)