

Family

Family is all just about love and peace you need in years
It grows stronger with a passing of time
A family is where you feel most at home as you are always needed
You are welcomed, loved and wanted with the making of memories
It's the place where you find someone to encourage you
Believe in you
Always there for you and cares for you

Maunatlala from Access South Africa