

Hope

Our past has gone in the night
Our future will be so bright
In the past, we couldn't get anything
In future, we will sing everything
When the people will enjoy their life
They will taste a new bit of life
In my past, I was single
In future, I and my loved ones will mingle
In the past, my life didn't shine
In future, the whole world will be mine
My young child! Don't cry
