

Love

I'll be there for you
In storm and hail,
To protect you in arms
I'll be there for you
In tears and pains
With a tender smile
reassuring and consoling you
That I'm with you
In utter dejection and desperation
Will reach out my hand to you making sure you don't tumble
Even when I'm not here.
My memory will cheer you up,
And bring a gentle smile on your lips.
I'm here for you.
