

Resources at Your Fingertips!

Use the Met's online resources for educators to support your teaching.

Search the Collections

www.metmuseum.org/collections/search-the-collections

Find high-resolution images of works of art, related information and multimedia content, and the locations of objects in the galleries.

The Heilbrunn Timeline of Art History

www.metmuseum.org/toah

Discover works of art and essays relevant to your teaching—search by geographic location, time period, subject, artist name, and more.

Museum Map

www.metmuseum.org/visit/museum-map

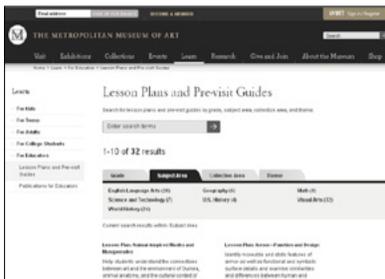

Identify the locations of works of art in the Museum and access gallery overviews.

Pre-visit Guides

www.metmuseum.org/learn/for-educators/lesson-plans-and-pre-visit-guides

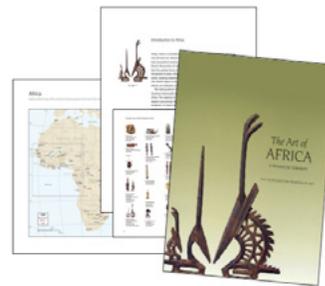

Use tour tips, introductions to the galleries, and lists of collection highlights to plan a self-guided class visit to the Museum.

Lesson Plans

www.metmuseum.org/learn/for-educators/lesson-plans-and-pre-visit-guides

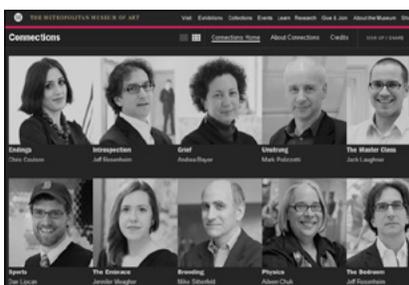

Access lessons, aligned with National Learning Standards, which support teaching across many different grade levels and subject areas.

Publications for Educators

www.metmuseum.org/learn/for-educators/publications-for-educators

Delve into resource guides for educators, which contain in-depth essays, information about works of art, and lesson plans.

Connections

www.metmuseum.org/connections

Explore works of art through the personal perspectives of Met staff members in these thematic web shorts.

Visit Nolen Library

www.metmuseum.org/research/libraries-and-study-centers/nolen-library

Consult a wide range of reference materials related to the Met's collection, including books, catalogues, and teacher resources.