

Mother

You are the queen of my heart
You are the star that brightens my night
You give me hope to achieve my ambition
You give me strength to succeed in my education
You help me in whatever situation
You offer me love and affection
You do your best to make me confident in myself
You teach me to be honest in my life
You never let me cry and always look of the sky
You push me to fly to say to failure goodbye

Khadija from Access Tunisia