

No Respect

why I don't listen, why I don't respect why I don't have a trust why I don't feel pity for people who need my help why I don't appreciate, why I don't learn from my mistake

I live a complicated life, I only care about myself not others
When something happens, I always take a blame I'm the same girl you see, the girl with no respect

I don't know if I can respect
I use to respect everything
But now I respect nothing

The girl with NO RESPECT
