

Sad Angle

Sometimes everything is going to be sad!
When someone leaves you in the mid,
Silence burns inside,
There is sadness everywhere,
Like the sadness of mine.

And ever thing is going to be shy!
There is so dark in the sky,
And ! there is so dark in my heart too
There is nothing but tears,
Are the ocean of my life,

And everything is going to be mysterious!
So far from others,
And! everyone is going to be deep & deep,
I can't fine any one soul,
Because I am unable to do anything

And everything is going to be hard!
But I want to fly like bird,
Free and placid,
But I don't think so,
Because I am too tired.
