

Start A Journey

Kill your fears
And wipe your tears.
Open your eyes
To see where the truth lies.
You can't be blind
As long as you have a mind.
Keep a positive attitude,
Fill your heart with gratitude.
With love and tolerance,
With faith and confidence.
Dive deep in your soul,
And start a journey to your goal.

Is there a sign? A word?
Or is everything blurred?
Never mind!
Persevere and you'll find
A guiding light
That'll make your path bright
Follow your dream
However far it may seem
One day you'll be there
But never forget to share
Be for others a shining smile
Their pain will fade in a while
