

Tell Me!

I wonder why some people do not ponder
Before acting or uttering words of wonder
Is it out of denseness or narrowness?
Or maybe due to immaturity or impulsiveness?
Or just to vex or show rudeness?
Are they aware of the repercussions
Of their irresponsible actions and verbal aggression?
Shall we resort to avoidance
Or wear a costume of patience?
