

Unrevealed Love

Whenever I look into your eyes, I find my greatest peace.
My heart fills with relaxation, all my happiness increase.

All my sorrows vanish like a magic, when I hear your voice.
Just to hear your lovely words, I'd love to live twice.

Whenever I hold your hands, I find my best shelter.
Can't find anyone safer than you, can't stay with anyone better.

All my tensions fly away, when you come into my sight.
May be I'm in love with you. Yes, I think I'm right.

Though I want to express my love, knowing that it's true.
Still I can't say, "Mom, I really love you!"
