

Waltzing Cheek

Waltzing cheeks lay cheek to cheek

Latched onto each other's glow

Waltzing eyes take a second glance

Find each other's prance as they trance between each other's jazz

Waltzing lips perched, shimmering as the sun strikes its ambience

Finding each other, locked in a dock

Lay cheek to cheek with me and share your waltz

Waltz of bliss, tip toeing to the sound of you slithering beneath the shore

Follow me-follow me to the lower depths of my cheek-where you may share sadness, envy, smirks, giggles, extravagance, anxiety, and above all; joy

Depart cheek to cheek with me and remain forever a cheek with mine
