

Yesterday

yesterday did not care to learn a language that is thought to decipher impossible an opportunity emerged for me or I gave my destination, I was chosen accepted for the course

Today, I run for the hours I spend in CCBEU are not wasted,

Today, I am finally understanding English

I realized that I open doors

I know now that I can follow different paths, and that's because I have more knowledge.

tomorrow will not be seizing what over or learned today maybe tomorrow I'll be in the U.S.A or elsewhere and because it completely mastered the English and I can go wherever I want tomorrow I'll be willing to learn more and more.
